From the desk of JP Welliver:

It is currently 10:49am on October 1st as I write this newsletter edition for you.

And the door is open allowing in fresh air, there are ambulance sirens in the distance, ducks quacking, The Price is Right is playing in the background, and the French vanilla coffee from Dunkin' donuts is permeating the apartment with its addicting smell.

Life is pretty great.

I have the day off from work because in a few hours I will be traveling to Hersheypark Stadium with my bestie Devin to see Pink in concert!

Life is pretty great indeed. And now the first sip of coffee has officially hit the lips.

Let's say it again.

Life is pretty great.

As we enter these last two months of the 2024 year, I would encourage each and every one of you to look around in your life and relish in the things that are really great.

We've got two incredibly large holidays that are happening in these next two months--which without a doubt are my personal favorites.

To be honest, I think Thanksgiving is a holiday that I've grown to love more over the years as I've gotten older.

There's just something to be said about being around family, enjoying delicious food (especially mashed potatoes--my FAVORITE), watching the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade on TV (if I'm up that early--that is something that has gotten a bit harder for me over the years as I get older), and seeing Santa Claus in his sleigh kick off the official start of the holiday season.

And I can't forget my favorite tradition with Thanksgiving--decorating the Christmas tree with my mom, dad, and Ginger.

As I think about these traditions, I get the feeling of warm fuzzies and think to myself... Life is pretty great.

And then I think about Christmas and all the wonderful things that come along with that holiday.

Watching Elf with my family every Christmas season is always a favorite moment of mine--and it doesn't matter how many times I've seen the movie.

One of my favorite traditions during the Christmas season (and this should come as no surprise to anyone), is the Christmas Eve service at Penryn.

It is something that I have been experiencing now for almost 30 years (since 1997)--and while we've had to adapt and change a few things since that time and I've grown to be older--the core, root elements of the service are still intact.

Every year, hands down, I will tell you that my favorite part of the service is when the congregation comes together with their candles, the lights go out, and we sing "Silent Night."

Once again, as I think about these things, I get the feeling of warm fuzzies and think to myself...

Life is pretty great.

Now, it's time to get serious.

This year, I've witnessed so many 'life is great' moments between our congregations as we've grown together and become closer in fellowship.

Now, time to get more serious.

On December 8th, members of the Penryn faith community will come together to approve a 2025 budget.

At the moment, the numbers are bleak and we are behind with the 2024 budget that we approved.

It's a harsh reality that a lot of churches are facing.

I, as much of each and every one of you, want the doors of Penryn and the great ministries we are doing to stay open and moving forward. I want our fellowship and relationship with Pastor Angie and St. Luke to keep getting stronger.

It is crucial that each of us takes a moment to become serious and think about our commitments to this community in both the financial and volunteering aspects.

I, as I'm sure each and every one of you, want to keep experiencing 'life is great' moments throughout the 2025 year with the people of our faith communities.

As we enter these last two months, prayerfully consider what else you can do for the church.

Be open to the spirit and what it is calling you to do.

Be open to helping others of the faith community and the community outside of our walls to all enjoy 'life is great' moments.

We are thankful and extremely grateful for each and every one of you.

Kindness for all, JP Welliver

From the Food Pantry at St. Paul

As the air begins to chill and the leaves begin to turn from greens to shades of oranges, yellows, and reds, we are reminded that change is upon us. Just as the seasons are changing with exciting new beauty, the food pantry is experiencing exciting new changes as well.

The food ministry has continued to grow throughout the summer into fall. In September the pantry served 1,780 individuals. That number included 207 new individuals, 556 total households, and 66 new households.

Over the past few years through our partnership with Lititz Chooses Love, we have been able to grow and expand our food ministry and feed thousands of people with food insecurity in our community. Due to changes in the LGBTQ+ community, Lititz Chooses Love has recently found itself needed in a growing number of areas throughout the community. Between the tremendous growth of numbers of individuals utilizing the food pantry and the increased need for LCL's presence throughout the area, LCL has decided to explore a new space to establish a larger LCL food pantry and increase their presence in new areas throughout the county. We are excited for their opportunity to grow, and we are excited to continue to partner with LCL to provide safe spaces for their activities and needs to support their community.

These exciting changes for LCL have presented new opportunities for us to explore how we can best do God's work through our feeding ministry. The changes occurring with the feeding ministry will be occurring over the next few months. Our food pantry is currently still open on Wednesdays and Saturdays with LCL. When LCL secures a new location for them to expand their vision, a transition will occur. We will communicate a timeline for the changes as the details unfold.

Our food pantry will continue to provide healthy food choices for those in our community that are facing food insecurity. When the transition occurs, the food pantry will be open every Saturday morning to provide food for those in need. We recently received a $2000 grant from the Synod Hunger Committee. This year the Synod Hunger Committee distributed approximately $43,000 to 28 different food ministries over the synod. We were pleased and grateful to receive this $2000 grant. In addition to the grant, we are looking for businesses in the area to partner with our food ministry for one month during the year by providing a financial contribution for food and volunteers at the pantry for one Saturday during their month. Also, we are reaching out to local youth groups to partner with our food ministry for one month during the year by holding a food drive for the pantry and volunteers from the youth group for one Saturday during their month.

In addition to these new partnerships, we are exploring partnerships with various other supports for the individuals that use the food pantry. We are exploring partnering with VITA, Volunteer Income Tax Assistance, to provide free tax services, as well as Member's 1st Federal Credit Union to provide financial education such as budgeting, building credit history, avoiding online scams, minimizing risks of identity theft and more. We are also exploring partnering with Union Community Care to provide basic medical services like screenings and childhood vaccines and with Lancaster Works to help people improve their employment status.

What an exciting time of change and opportunity for us to see where God's guidance takes our feeding ministry during this next step in our journey! Even though we are building community partnerships, the food pantry still needs your support. Consider volunteering, making a monetary donation, and above all please keep in your prayers those who use the feeding ministry, Lititz Chooses Love during their transition, and our feeding ministry during this transitional time.

Join Tree 4 Hope and Chica Bean Coffee on a caffeine fueled Advent Journey as we marinate in the patient moments provided to us during the time it takes our morning coffee to brew. Through daily devotionals, visio divina practices, guided imagery prayer, and other prayerful activities, we will use these movements to delve into a deeper relationship with God and our neighbors, especially those living in Guatemala!

Join Pastor Angie on Monday mornings during Advent for a short morning devotional via zoom. We'll gather around the scripture, coffee, and our screens for a time of prayer and reflection as we begin our week.

Join us on December 2, 9, 16, and 23 at 8:00 AM. A zoom link will be sent prior to each meeting. An electronic version of the devotional will be emailed to the congregations for those who would like to use the Advent devotional material on their own. The coffee we receive will be split between the two congregations for Sunday morning coffee.

Synod News

Lower Susquehanna Synod 2025 Bishop's Election

In the Lower Susquehanna Synod, we equip leaders, encourage cooperation, and engage new mission, all for the sake of sharing God's love in the world; our bishop serves as the spiritual and administrative leader in this work. In June 2025, we will elect a new bishop as Bishop Dunlop wraps up his second term and steps into retirement. Electing a bishop is one of the most important responsibilities in the life of a synod. As such, it involves discernment, from the perspective of individual potential nominees and the synod as a whole. Thus, engaging in prayerful reflection and seeking the guidance of the Holy Spirit are critical aspects of the process of nomination and election.

Enclosed are two documents to help gain a better, more complete understanding of our synod's mission support and commitment throughout the LSS, and a timeline of the bishop's election.

Pastor Angie, as a member of synod council, serves on the Mission Committee, which is in part responsible for communicating and overseeing the election process. Please contact her if you have questions about the process.
